MOBILE SUIT A New Gundam Type

One of the Gundam frames. While the fine details are still unknown, what we can tell you is that many of the parts are lightweight, with an even greater emphasis on mobility than the Barbatos.

Already Getting a Gunpla Version!

A HG model kit adaptation was announced at the recent Hobby Show exhibition. Tune in over the next few issues for more details!

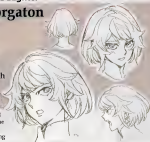

Steel Moon is running to catch reviews! This time, a new Gundam Frame Mobile Suit is revealed. Will it be brand or box? Plus, concept art and profiles of the new characters.

Ted Morgaton's Daughter Liarina Morgaton

The late Ted Morgaton's only daughter. Has led a very normal life until now, but is full of secrets, such as her knowledge of the Astaroth.

Her sharp eyes give a bit of a cold impression, but she has an unusual wealth of expressions. She has a strong will, but still feels things normally, such as when she hears of her father's death.

CHARACTER

The Hakuri Siblings' Mobile Suits

Hakuri Rodi

A variant on the Mari Rodi. Fundamentally the same machine as the one used by the Brewers, but without the Alaya-Vijnana System. Sanpo's machine is armed with a chopper, Yuhana's with a longaxe. 90mm machine guns are installed in the chest and back.

«The heads and cockpit blocks were destroyed when they were found, so the parts were replaced»

The Hakuri Siblings Mercenaries Targeting Liarina

Sold as Human Debris and currently making a living as mercenaries. A big brother who wants to provide a good life for his sister, and a little sister who's happy living in the moment. As siblings, their team attack timing is perfect. They treasure each other, and are quite close.

1/ With drooping eyes and tall figure, there's a strong family resemblance. Between the husk, cool Sanpo and the lively, enthusiastic Yuhana, they're a well balanced combo.

thanks for reading!

This was included as a bonus in this month's edition of Gundam Ace, the magazine Steel Moon runs in. It's a card for the Gundam card-based strategy arcade game, appropriately named Gundam UC Card Builder. I've never tried it as it looks terribly complicated, not to mention expensive to collect cards, as far as Gundam arcade games go, I prefer the FPS Bonds of the Battlefield.

The text on the front is mostly just related to stats. It also has the suit name, and what I think is its special move, rather charmingly called ASTAROTH AVENGER.

The flavor text on the back reads "There were dozens of Gundam Frames made, right? So there must be plenty of Gundams around besides the Barbates and the ones Tekkadan's fought. I bet they're out fighting somewhere. I wonder what they're like. "mumbling"" "Hey! Don't think you can get caught up in weird daydreams just cause you're dumb!"

(Child Soldiers of Tekkadan)

Sorry about the shoddy two-page spreads. Hopefully I'll release a v.2 soon with that fixed, but I kind of wanted to get this out already.

As always, please support the official release any way you can! This is Gundam, it's not too hard!

See you next month with the next chapter!
